EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

The expression "size detecting means" recited at line 5 of the abstract is replaced by --size detecting unit--;

The expression "controlling means" recited at both lines 8, and 13, of the abstract is replaced by --controlling unit--;

The expression "writing means" recited at line 12 of the abstract is replaced by --writing unit--;

The abstract is also rewritten in a single paragraph.

-Amended abstract-

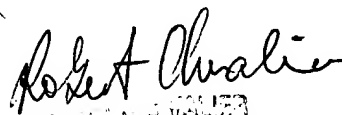

A data recording apparatus that sequentially input: data configured in units that cannot be recorded across different files and records the data in a file having a predetermined volume, has: size detecting unit for deciding when data is sequentially recorded in file, whether next unit of the data to be recorded can be fully recorded in the same file, or not; file creation controlling unit for recording said next data to be recorded in another file or stopping recording if the case where the result of the decision by said size detecting unit shows that recording is not possible; and file writing unit for writing data in a file according to the control from said file creation controlling unit.
